

Amazing LOVE

It's never been so easy to raise children as a single Mom, but through all the hardship, pain and uncertain times, God has always proved Himself so faithful, and powerful in our lives.

He has provided all our needs and answered our prayers for healing and protection in so many wonderful ways that I couldn't imagine or attribute to human efforts, but because of the goodness and unconditional love of God for us.

I thank God for our church family JRIM genuinely caring and accepting people without any judgement. Their prayers of agreement, teachings and good examples, have given my family so much joy and hope for the future. - Ash Vienna
